

INCREASED YIELD

New Development for the Sprint 2[®] Dicer

Under development for the Sprint 2 Dicer, the new feed chute offers precision delivery of products such as jumbo carrots. Cutting applications include carrot sticks and batons. By increasing feeding accuracy, a larger percentage of infeed product engages with the cutting parts to increase yield. Streamlined processing increases overall cost-savings maximizing time and the amount of cut product within the desired target range.

< Contact Urschel for more information.

URSCHEL[®]
The Global Leader in Food Cutting Technology

www.urschel.com | info@urschel.com